

maritime A new service to Asia from Le Havre

HAROPA PORT has a new weekly service commercialized by Hapag-Lloyd. Named FE9, it offers a new connection between Asian markets and France, and reinforces the HAROPA PORT's maritime offer on the Asia-Europe trade.

Published on 7/04/2023 - Updated 24/11/2023

©HAROPA PORT

Positioned as the last European export port in the Far East Loop 9 (FE9) rotation, this new weekly service is offered from Le Havre.

In details :

- rotation : Qingdao - Ningbo - Shanghai - Xiamen - Yantian - Singapore - Rotterdam - Southampton - Antwerp - Le Havre - Jeddah - Qingdao;
- stopover : Wednesday at the Terminal de France operated by Générale de manutention portuaire (GMP);
- competitive transit times : Singapore 23 days, Qingdao 37 days.

The first call at Le Havre took place on April 9th.

This service also completes the FE2 import service operated by the shipping line within THE ALLIANCE.

Asia, HAROPA PORT's 1st trade

Leading French port, HAROPA PORT is connected to 155 Asian ports and has a maritime offer to 3 regions (Indian subcontinent, Far East, South-East Asia) thanks to 852 weekly commercial offers. 19 regular shipping companies between Europe and China have chosen HAROPA PORT as their port of call.

More info.

71, quai Colbert, 76600 Le Havre

+33(2) 79 18 05 00