

Advanced search

Research

Showing results 1 to 20 on 86 in total

Advanced search | HAROPA PORT

News Le Havre in the WWA South African service

Relevance : 100%

To cover the citrus season, Hapag-Lloyd enhances its operations in the African continent by updating its West-Europe-West-Africa (WWA) service and provides a direct service from Durban and Coega to North Europe via Le Havre.

Published on 29/04/2024 - Updated 30/04/2024

News From wheat... to bioplastic

Relevance : 100%

Two industrial players are joining forces to develop a bio-industrial platform dedicated to green chemistry in Port-Jérôme-sur-Seine. The announcement of this project, a European first, is good news for the region.

Published on 22/04/2024 - Updated 25/04/2024

News The « chatière », preparatory work continues

Relevance : 100%

On Friday, March 29, 2024, the Rouen Administrative Court gave the go-ahead to HAROPA PORT to continue preparatory work on the « chatière » project.

Published on 8/04/2024 - Updated 11/04/2024

News Maritime cruises back on track

Relevance : 100%

After a flourishing year in 2023, sea cruise is continuing its dynamic growth! HAROPA PORT and its partners are pulling out all the stops to welcome a record number of calls in 2024: more than 220 are expected.

Published on 8/04/2024 - Updated 11/04/2024

News The Ane Maerks, methanol-powered container ship, calls at Le Havre

Relevance : 100%

Christened last January in South Korea, the new flagship of the Maersk shipping line is making its maiden voyage in Northern European ports. The first methanol-powered container ships in a series of 18, the Ane Maersk called at Le Havre on Saturday, this week-end.

Published on 8/04/2024 - Updated 9/04/2024

News Soon "zero fumes" port calls for Le Havre cruise terminal

Relevance : 100%

Work continues for the quayside electrification! On Thursday February 1, construction's started for the electrification of the Le Havre's cruise terminal, which will offer "zero fumes" port calls by 2026.

Published on 1/02/2024 - Updated 13/02/2024

News HAROPA PORT signs up for Paris 2024

Relevance : 100%

Six months before the opening of the Olympic and Paralympic Games, HAROPA PORT signs a collaboration agreement with Paris 2024. The aim is to integrate the entire river ecosystem into the organisation and running of the Games, and to accelerate the energy transition on the Seine. This cooperation...

Published on 1/02/2024 - Updated 22/04/2024

News 2023: HAROPA PORT stays on course and displays growth financial results

Relevance : 100%

In 2023, HAROPA PORT maintains its market share in the northern range, despite a decrease in maritime traffic. With a turnover of €422 million, up +11%, the port displays solid financial results. The structuring of a green Sequanian corridor continues, with major installations in new fuels and the...

Published on 29/01/2024 - Updated 17/04/2024

News Drones at port service

Relevance : 100%

In the digital age, drones are carving out a place for themselves in maritime and port sectors. They are revolutionizing traditional working methods and are used by professionals in their daily operations. Always striving to improve performance, HAROPA PORT integrates them into its activities.

Published on 16/01/2024 - Updated 13/02/2024

News UAFL includes the port of Le Havre in its new rotation

Relevance : 100%

UAFL (United Africa feeder line) launches a service from Le Havre, as part of its new EuroGulf Service (EGS) connection.

Published on 16/01/2024 - Updated 19/01/2024

News United Kingdom: MSC bets on Le Havre

Relevance : 100%

MSC has chosen Le Havre as part of the reorganization of its service to Liverpool and the west coast of Scotland (Liverpool, Portbury and Greenock). The new rotation serves the three ports via Le Havre, whereas the feeder service previously served Antwerp.

Published on 16/01/2024 - Updated 18/01/2024

News Railsafe, to strengthen freight train safety

Relevance : 100%

HAROPA PORT launches Railsafe in Le Havre. This software package improves parking management of freight trains and hazardous materials train parking in the heart of the industrial port zone.

Published on 12/01/2024 - Updated 22/01/2024

News Construction starts on « la chatière » at Port 2000

Relevance : 100%

Construction to improve river access to Port 2000 will start in the first half of 2024. This will take place after signature of the prefectural decree authorizing construction.

Published on 22/12/2023 - Updated 16/01/2024

News Port digital twin: what's it all about?

Relevance : 100%

HAROPA PORT is developing a digital twin for ship calls and quayside operations. This tool aims to improve the safety and efficiency of port operations, as well as the use of associated resources. Read more.

Published on 15/12/2023 - Updated 20/12/2023

News HAROPA PORT draws the smart navigation channel

Relevance : 100%

HAROPA PORT is working on an innovation program around the "smart navigation channel" project, integrating the latest AI technologies. The aim: to improve navigation on the Seine and imagine tomorrow's.

Published on 12/12/2023 - Updated 18/12/2023

News TPO & TNMSC switch to hybrid!

Relevance : 100%

In mid-November, the TiL MSC group's terminals took delivery of 12 hybrid straddle carriers for Port 2000. With this delivery, which completes the 24 units already received in 2022/2023, the operator passes the 50% milestone for the renewal of its straddle carrier fleet in two years.

Published on 11/12/2023 - Updated 18/12/2023

News Low-carbon hydrogen : a new production unit on the Seine axis

Relevance : 100%

On 22 November, HAROPA PORT and VERSO ENERGY, a specialist in renewable energies, signed an agreement to set up an industrial unit to produce low-carbon hydrogen and synthetic fuels in the HAROPA PORT port area in Grand-Quevilly.

The site will be located on land belonging to HAROPA PORT in Grand...

Published on 23/11/2023 - Updated 24/11/2023

News The legacy of the Olympic Games: the challenge of the Seine

Relevance : 100%

For the Olympic and Paralympic Games's organization, France opted for on the Seine! Placed at the heart of the sporting event, the river must, in the aftermath of the Games, retain its privileged place in the Paris region's logistic. That's why HAROPA PORT is committed to ensuring its long-term...

Published on 21/11/2023 - Updated 28/11/2023

News New large-scale land development at the port of Bruyères-sur-Oise

Relevance : 100%

HAROPA PORT has issued a call for declarations of interest for a 5.8 hectares plot of land ideally located at the port of Bruyères-sur-Oise (Val d'Oise). The purpose is to measure and qualify the interest in making available a plot of land located upstream from the platform.

Published on 15/11/2023 - Updated 21/11/2023

News HAROPA PORT and the port authority of Kribi now partners

Relevance : 100%

On the sidelines of the IAPH World Ports Conference, HAROPA PORT and the port authority of Kribi signed a partnership agreement. Objective: to promote cooperation between the two ports to strengthen trade.

Published on 8/11/2023

71, quai Colbert, 76600 Le Havre

+33(2) 79 18 05 00