With over 20 % of its workforce employed in industrial activities, the Seine axis is a strategic territory not only for Normandy but also for France. This territory concentrates most of France's energy production capacity. The Seine Estuary chemical complex is also one of the largest in Europe and the diversity of industrial activities in Normandy is truly exceptional (Energy, automotive, aerospace, health and agrifood) and backed by strong infrastructures and a diverse suppliers' network and logistics solutions.

The territory has set ambitious energy transition targets. Engaged actor in favor of Ecological Transition, on this occasion, HAROPA PORT presents the Le Havre - Port Jérôme territory : an integrated cooperative industrial platform.
