Discover HAROPA PORT's intermodal strategy in Barcelona on October 21

Supported by European transport policy and initiatives such as the TEN-T network, ports now play a central role in smarter and more sustainable logistics networks. HAROPA PORT is fully part of this dynamic, offering high-performance, sustainable intermodal solutions in line with European requirements.

To present the port's strategy, share its expertise, and best practices in intermodality, Tommaso Spanevello, Head of European Affairs at HAROPA PORT, will speak on the panel "Port-centric logistics: the new intermodal hubs" on October 21, 2025, at 3:15 PM.

Intermodal Europe: a must-attend international event

Intermodal Europe is one of the key trade fairs for professionals in logistics and combined transport. Every year, it brings together experts, decision-makers, and operators from around the world to discuss trends and innovations in the sector.
