A new direct maritime connection between the Port of Rouen and Algeria has been launched by the CNAN – National Algerian Navigation Company.

This return of the Algerian shipping company, after 20 years of absence, testifies to the recognition of the Rouen area's skills in the handling of conventional freight. An ideal tool for your business in Algeria.

The service started on May, 9th with the departure of a first vessel at the General Cargo Container Terminal (TCMD) of Grand-Couronne.

► 5 vessels armed by the CNAN will eventually be aligned on the line.

Details of the service

- Bi-monthly rotation
- Algerian ports affected: Algiers, Oran, Annaba, Bejaia & Skikda
- Rouen positioned as the last export port of the Northern range
– Transit time Rouen / Algiers: 6 days
- Conventional goods, heavy lifts and containers
- Shipping agent in Rouen : www.promaritime.fr
